

New Teachers Convene At Peterboro

A meeting of secondary school teachers was held in Peterboro on the evening of September 28 for the purpose of assisting teachers in district 22 who are new to the profession.

This is in accordance with the federation's policy of in-service training of new teachers who are beginning their careers in the secondary schools of Ontario.

The profession development committee of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers Federation organized the meeting to act as consultants in their own fields. These teachers are available at any time for assistance and advice on courses, books, methods and problems.

New teachers from the Haliburton County District High School who attended were Mr. Raymond Charette and Mr. John Gill. Mr. Clarence McInerney, president of the Haliburton branch of the federation introduced these men to district 22.

New House Of Worship Ready For Use

The North Road Chapel, which has been under construction this past summer in Minden, is ready for use and will be opened for services on Sunday, October 9.

Its pastor, Rev. Amos Brubacher, has been supervising the erection of the building and with many other free laborers has brought to completion one of Minden's finest buildings.

Its size is 28 feet by 56 feet with brick veneer siding and angel stone front. A full basement leaves ample room for Sunday school classes and young peoples' work. A craft class will be started shortly.

The dedication on Sunday is followed by a special Thanksgiving service on Monday evening, October 10 with Rev. Tom Gracie bringing the message.

Further notice of services is found in this issue.

Minden Home And School

Friday night, though rainy proved a very successful night for the annual "fun night" sponsored by the Minden Home and School association. Door prize from the wishing well was won by Miss Nancy McInerney and the euchre prize by Mr. W. Ackerblade. A word of thanks to all who so kindly helped in any way to make this venture a success.

The fish pond and the bingo as well as the movie were all rushed for business and the cake walk led to many winners of the lovely cakes on display. All in all it was a successful night and will likely be repeated another year.

Growing Unemployment Topic At Minden Liberal Meeting

Growing unemployment was one of the chief topics of discussion at a meeting of the Victoria Riding Liberal Association held this week in Minden. A large representation of Liberals from all parts of the riding attended the meeting which was held in Harding's restaurant.

Members of the association were on hand from Beaverton on the west, Tory Hill on the east, Omeme, Sunderland and Lindsay on the south and Haliburton on the north.

President Jos. Staples of Lindsay welcomed the visitors and brought them up to date on various plans for the future. Some of the older Liberals attending are reported to have remarked that they hadn't seen such spontaneous enthusiasm during the past 16 years.

The ever-increasing unemployment situation which has developed since the Diefenbaker government was formed three years ago occupied the attention of the meeting for some time. The general feeling of those present was that a Liberal candidate should be named as soon as possible in view of the seriousness of the unemployment situation and the need to help correct it, plus the possibility that a federal election could take place next spring.

On the subject it was the belief of representatives that there would be no dearth of candidates seeking the Liberal nomination. Three of those on hand declared themselves as aspirants when a nomination meeting takes place.

It was decided that November 26 be set as the date for the election of association officers, the meeting to be held in the Legion hall, Lindsay.

An expression of appreciation to Mr. Harding for a delicious lunch was expressed by Mr. Staples.

Y.P.C.A. Endeavor To Secure Police College

The following is a copy of a brief from the Haliburton County Young Progressive Conservative Association presented to Magistrate J. L. Roberts, director of the committee to establish a police college for Ontario.

We wish to bring to your attention at this time certain matters pertaining to our suggestion of the location and establishing of the police college in our area.

From a physical view in relation to their operations, we might classify three separate types of policing systems operating in our province. 1 Forces under federal jurisdiction. 2 Forces under municipal or local jurisdiction. 3. Forces under provincial jurisdiction.

Forces under provincial jurisdiction have, in the main, two different bodies of men administering their duties. Therefore, co-ordinated training of the Ontario police and the Department of Lands and Forests groups covering certain similar operations of their activities, we feel would be advantageous to the public and themselves. In order to support our contention we are listing below some of these fields:

Co-operation between and on administration of fish and wildlife conservation; driver education and traffic safety; water safety; organization of search and rescue parties; first aid training; forest fire

A HISTORY OF HALIBURTON
by NILA REYNOLDS

Chapter 8

WHEN PINE WAS KING

For the early pioneers of Haliburton county the changing seasons held a deep significance. Dependent on the produce of their own farms for a livelihood, frost too late in the spring or too early in the fall could ruin the crops and bring whole settlements face to face with privation. An abundance of rain could rot the potatoes in the ground while prolonged periods of excessive sunlight withered the tender plants and dehydrated the tree clothed landscape to tinder which the smallest spark could ignite.

In those days there was no crop insurance other than prolonged sessions spent on the knees alternating weeding with prayers. Even the children wielded the hoe with an enthusiasm engendered by the knowledge that their winter's food depended on their industry. As for unemployment insurance, a settler on the frontier was faced with enough work to last for two lifetimes; the house and barns must be built and improved, fields must be fenced and cleared of stone. Here the pioneer's ingenuity combined two operations and the picturesque stone fences all over the county stand today as a memorial to the industry of several generations of Haliburton's pioneers.

Recently a Maple Lake farmer had reason to remove a section of such a fence from his property. When the bulldozer went to work it revealed that, like the icebergs of the North Atlantic, more of the fence had sunk beneath the surface than showed above.

Scattered stone of varying dimensions was one of the major hazards facing the county's farmers. A settler on the Irish line in Guilford township, Alec Baker, owned a particularly level field whose only drawback was an abundance of such stone. Determining to clear the field for all time, Baker and his sons picked stone every spare moment for three long years. The fall of the third year Mr. Baker relaxed, congratulating himself on next year's crop which should yield a bumper harvest for the field was as smooth as the butter his wife produced with her dash churn.

Came the spring and his elation evaporated like the mists of morning. The winter's frost had worked a whole new crop of rocks to the surface! Alec Baker always swore that they grew there.

As soon as the harvest was safely stored in the barn and the frost kindled to blazing glory the hard maples on the hillside, the farm wife knew it was time to pack her husband's "turkey" with warm knitted mittens, stockings, etc. After bidding a tearful farewell to the family he might not see again until the spring, the farmer was off to the woods to earn the hard cash to purchase necessities he could not produce on his own farm.

This was the era of the lumber barons of the Trent and Ottawa. Pine was king and the hills of Haliburton seemed to offer an inexhaustible supply. Only the best pine were chosen for the long drive by water from central Ontario to the mills at Quebec. Any rot or any more than three knots automatically culled a log and condemned it to decay where it fell.

To the lumbermen of today those forest giants which fell to the axes of Mossom Boyd, the Gillies, the Gilmour company, Rathburns, Howerys or the Gull River company, would be treasure trove indeed. Few survived the onslaught of axe and saw to illustrate the size to which virgin pine in Haliburton grew. However, in 1958 such a tree was discovered on the Harburn limits of C. W. Hodgson & Son standing in solitary splendor on a sand flat. This perfectly sound colossus yielded five 12-foot logs. The butt log measured at the top 38 inches inside the bark, the top log 25 inches, while the total scale of the five logs was 3,021 board feet.

A comparable white pine taken from the International Coopersage limits in Harburn was too large to be skidded by a team. Handled by a bulldozer, its 12 foot long butt log on reaching the mill scaled 1,300 feet. Too large for the saw it had to be split by dynamite. Today the average scale for a good 12 foot log is 100 feet.

Logging gangs entered the bush as early as the first of September for timber making, log cutting, skidding, road making and stream improvements such as dams, piers, etc., could be accomplished most economically before the snow fell to hamper the operation.

When the snow was 10 inches deep it was time to haul the timber from the skidways to the streams over roads carefully watered to build up the ice for the sleighs, down hills which were constantly sanded to prevent runs. The streams and marshes on which the logs were dumped had been dammed the previous fall to provide the volume of water necessary to carry off the spring drive.

When a company bought pine cutting rights in a township their new limits were bush ranged to determine the best location for their depot camp and the camps which it would supply with food staples, such as barrels of salt pork, flour, bags of beans and salt.

The first sweetening to be introduced into the cambouse camps was barrels of molasses. Sugar was a luxury which the timber barons did not deem necessary for shanty boys. However, cattle were sometimes driven to the depot camps which had adjoining camps to be slaughtered during the winter.

Old timers recall that in the days when Mossom Boyd had a camp at the head of Redstone, his bush superintendent would purchase all the game and fish which local hunters could provide.

In 1834, at the age of 19, Mossom Boyd settled on the north shore of Sturgeon Lake where he chopped his first clearing. A talented business man with vision beyond the average he early realized the great profits to be obtained from the white pine in which the region abounded. When Thomas Need, the founder of Bobcaygeon, returned to England in 1850 Boyd purchased his property. For a time he was in partnership with John Langton who was left in charge of Need's interest.

At Bobcaygeon Mossom Boyd erected a large mill which contained one "yankee gang," about 30 saws and one "gate," besides circulars for butting, edging, etc. It was capable of cutting 20,000 feet per day. Boyd also built a mansion on Pigeon Island whose magnificence was for years the talk of the country.

Mossom Boyd possessed the happy faculty of employing able men to look after his interests which in the 1860's extended into the Municipality of Dysart et al. Here he met and hired Chas. R. Stewart. Boyd's bush superintendent in the area was Norman Barnhart who metled team of blacks was the envy of every horse lover in Haliburton. Not a man to be fooled with, Barnhardt was capable of great humanitarian deeds and is still remembered with affection by the county's older residents.

Barnhardt's Lake in Harburn township commemorates the man who directed the area's first logging operations.

The shopping centre at Fort Irwin on Haliburton Lake is built near the site of Boyd's depot camps which were later taken over by James M. Irwin whose head office was at Nasseau on the Trent. There is evidence that Boyd once owned and operated a sawmill at the foot of Head Lake which later burned. If this is so it was probably located on the 11 acres Boyd rented from C. E. Stewart in 1873.

It is difficult to date the actual years Mossom Boyd logged in any township for purchase of the cutting rights did not place him on the tax rolls.

First of the lumbermen to appear as land owners were Brownson and Weston who in 1872, were located on the first and second concession of Bruton township. The following year Boyd leased his 11 acres in Dysart where Alexander Smith purchased 293 acres in the fifth concession.

During 1875, 1876 and 1877 Smith and Boyd lumbered in Dudley. In 1876 Mossom Boyd established his famous experimental farm in Havelock township where his loggers cleared over 100 acres on the portage between Little Redstone and Kennis. A farm house and stables were erected and a year round caretaker employed to operate the farm. Among those who kept the Havelock farm were Dave Mitchell and John Arnberg Sr., who settled on lot 3, conc. 1, Guilford in 1876.

The farm was successful for at one time an entire threshing machine was taken apart and laboriously ferried up the lakes to thresh the crop.

The partnership between Mossom Boyd and James M. Irwin began around 1878 when they appear on the tax rolls in the township of Dudley and continued until Boyd's death at the age of 68 in 1883. Their depot camp which served their operations at Redstone and Kennis was located on lot 3, concession 7 in Guilford township. It was serviced by supplies hauled by cage teams. Before roads were improved a days journey for such a team was the distance from Bobcaygeon to Minden where the teamsters stabled their horses or oxen at the livery stable and spent the night at one of Minden's hotels. The following day the journey was resumed and the load hauled to Gwin's corner where team and driver enjoyed the hospitality of the Half Way House there. The third day saw the load delivered to the Mud Lake depot and the team on its way back to Bobcaygeon for another consignment.

In those days life was hazardous for both man and team. While logging the rocky bluffs behind the Mud Lake depot a fine span of grey horses lost their footing and fell nearly 100 feet to their death. Fortunately the driver did not take the plunge and escaped with his life.

A very enjoyable and profitable evening was held at the home of Mrs. Russell Johnston on Wednesday, September 21 when the Haliburton United Church W.A. held its first fall meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Robertson, president, was in the chair and assisted by the secretary, Mrs. M. McKnight. The meeting was opened by the call to worship and repeating of the Mary Stewart collect.

Mrs. Boyd Austin led in the devotional service, giving a reading based on the text, "And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap if we faint not." Gal. 6:9.

A hearty welcome was tendered to our new minister's wife, Mrs. G. Petrie, who responded in a few well chosen words, her pleasure at being present and desire to serve in any way she could.

The treasurer, Mrs. Wes. Baker, presented a most gratifying report on the summer's activities. Also Mrs. McKnight stated practically all the books of uncooked recipes, a new project, had been sold.

At the October meeting, which will be entertained at the parsonage, each member is asked to contribute an apron or other article to renew sewing for bazaar purposes.

A very detailed report of the parsonage committee was given by Mrs. H. Black of all the purchases and worn done, to which Mrs. G. Petrie expressed deep appreciation for same. She also thanked all who had made the open house recently such a successful event.

Announcement of the Group 6 sectional rally, Lindsay presbyterial in Lochlin United Church, October 5 was made.

The cheer convenor, Mrs. R. Johnston, reported several cards mailed to sick and bereaved as well as home and hospital calls made.

Following the penny march the benediction was pronounced and refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

TORY HILL W.A.

The regular meeting of the United church W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Brooking with eight members and one visitor present. The president, Mrs. Deterling, conducted the devotional period which opened with the singing of the theme hymn.

The scripture, Gal. 6:1-10 was read responsively.

The topic for September, taken by the president, stressed that by our extra deeds outside the church we showed ourselves to be truly Christian. The devotional ended with the singing of the hymn "Go Labor On" and the repetition of the W.A. Collect in unison.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

The treasurer reported a substantial bank balance, a considerable sum being realized from the summer bake sales and the strawberry supper. A motion was made to give $100 of funds to the church treasury. It was suggested that as many members as possible attend the W.A. rally at Lochlin on October 5. Mrs. H. Anderson and Mrs. B. Mumford offered their cars for transportation. It was decided to hold a turkey supper in October.

Plans will be discussed at the next meeting on October 13 at the home of Mrs. J. Noble when the hostesses will be Mrs. D. E. Finlay and Mrs. Bert Mumford.

Rally day was observed in the Tory Hill United Church with a special service of worship.

Mrs. D. E. Finlay and Helen McCrea assisted Mr. Dawson in the service and a group of children rendered a special musical selection.

Departmental promotions in the Sunday school were announced, the children promoted each receiving a certificate.

Sunday school will convene at 12.45 p.m. each Sunday for the fall and winter months. Children of the community are cordially invited to attend.

PECK REUNION

The family of the late Frank and Emma Peck gathered for a second reunion on Sunday, September 25 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Drummond at Norwood, Ont.

There were 34 members present including the children. The afternoon was spent visiting and taking pictures. A delicious dinner and supper was served on tables outside.

Relatives from Toronto, Merrickville, Bowmanville, Haliburton, Maple Lake and Guilford attended. The first reunion was held at Chemong Lake in 1949.

WILBERFORCE

A charming wedding took place at St. Margaret's church on Saturday last. Rev. Taylor of Haliburton officiated at the ceremony. Miss Valerie's Twa's smallest sister was flower-girl. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Stanley Stoughton.

New Iron Fireman CUSTOM Mark II oil furnace pays for itself in short time—burns absolutely clean

This 7-room Portland home is one of the many in which the installation of the unique new Iron Fireman CUSTOM Mark II oil furnace has resulted in outstanding fuel savings and new comfort, compared with old-style heating. "I'm first...after all, this used to be OUR clothesline!"

Clotheslines make dandy skipping ropes. And that's about all that can be said in favour of clotheslines in this modern world of electricity.

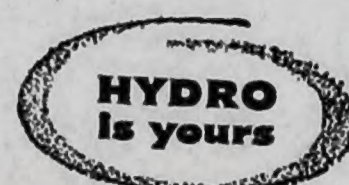

What a "Cinderella" change has come over our woman's world with today's weather-proof automatic electric dryers. Never a care about the weather on washday... no more heavy laundry basket to lift... no more tedious, back-breaking "hanging-out."

Your surroundings change, too, when you own an automatic electric dryer... no more drooping, dripping basement washings... more space in the yard for outdoor living.

Isn't it time you made some little "skipper" a present of your clothesline?

HERE! THE GREATEST SHOW ON WORTH!

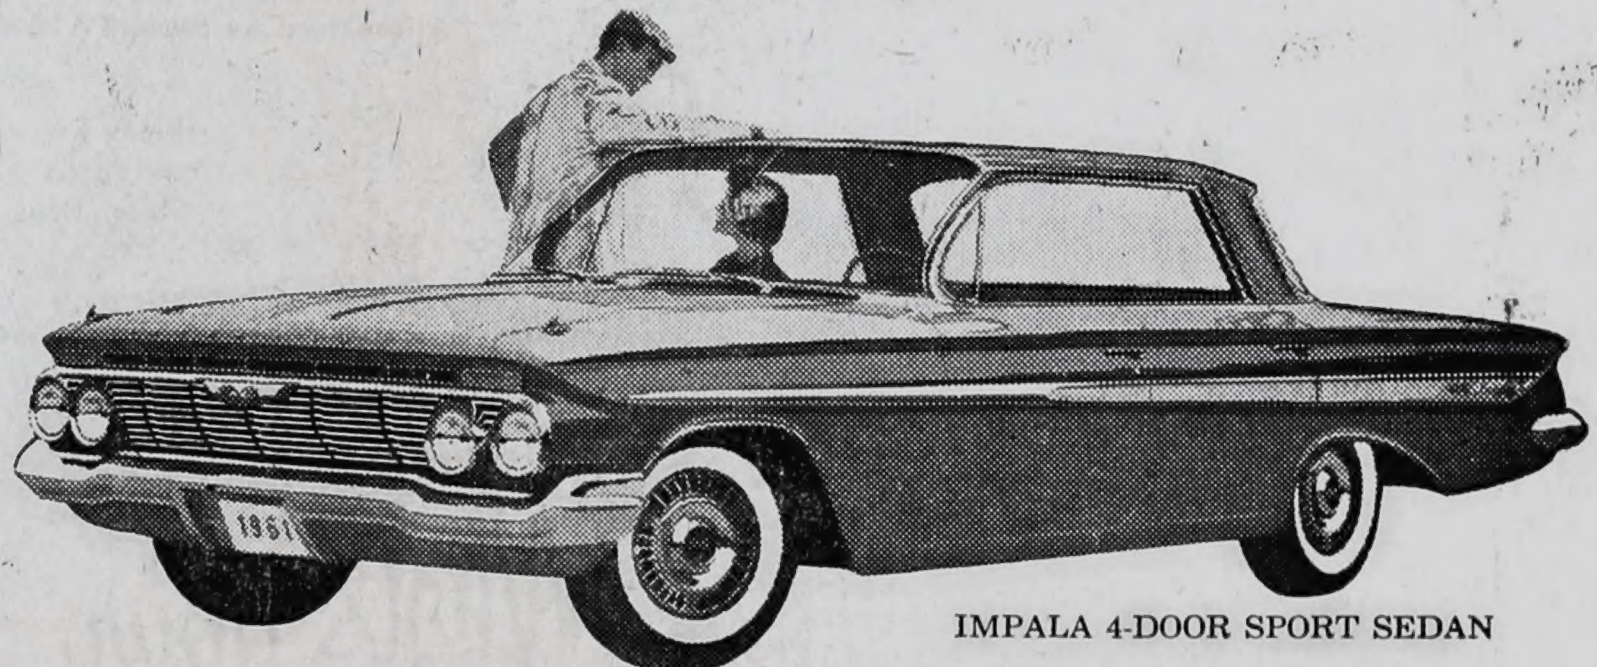

SIXTY-ONE DERFUL CHEVROLET

Here's the car that reads you loud and clear — the new-size, you-size '61 Chevrolet. A car so right for you in so many ways that once you compare it with the rest of the crop you'll agree nothing else near the money measures up to it.

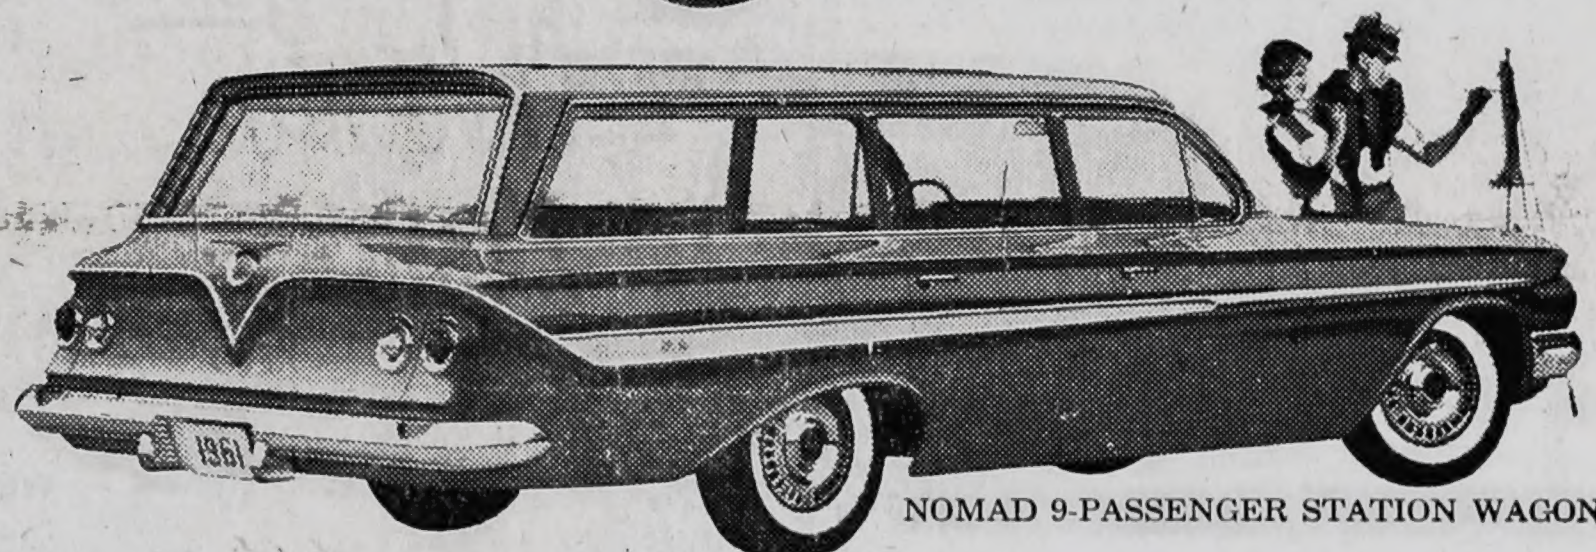

We started out by trimming the outside size a bit (to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and manoeuvring) but inside we left you a full measure of Chevy comfort. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider to give feet, knees and elbows the undisputed right of way. And the new easy-chair seats are as much as 14% higher — just right for seeing, just right for sitting.

Once you've settled inside you'll have high and wide praises for Chevrolet's spacious new dimensions (in the Sport Coupes, for example, headroom has been upped as much as 2 inches, and there's more legroom, too — front and rear). Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely — what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-etched elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details that make this sensationally sensible '61 Chevy a new measure of your money's worth.

More room — more for you, more for your things. More dependable operation. Smarter, smoother styling. More miles per gallon. Station Wagons, too.

Corvair for '61: a complete line of complete thrift-cars from Chevrolet.

To start with, every Corvair Sedan and Coupe costs less. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon... quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner... a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everybody evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you, more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have almost 12% more useable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them. They're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagons do a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagons you're going to have to see — they give you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things. Compare that with any other Canadian wagon going!

Corvair's whole thrifty line-up gets its pep from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and refined 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Investigation; court procedure, radio operation, map reading. Many others exist in which adoption of present methods now used by one or the other would be valuable.

This area situated between the northern trans-Canada route and southern route has several advantages in that most of all of the province is within short driving time.

We are famous as an aquatic area. This would be very valuable for physical education and water practices.

Because of intensive study this college should not have outside distractions such as nearby towns and villages.

The close proximity to a university school of this type has many advantages. New buildings will not require costly designing and materials to match surrounding architecture and allow low-cost construction like the present school to be proper.

Natural hill and forest background prevents costly four side elevation appearance and landscaping.

This area is removed from commercial or industrial development because of large acreage connected with the present school.

To sum up, Mr. Director, it is the firm contention of this association that the rights and interests of the people of Ontario would be well protected in the large savings on capital outlay possible and the mutual advantages of both forces in choosing this area for the college site.

The Captain's Desk

Capt. W. Kerr
Salvation Army

Often there appears on my desk articles on a variety of subjects. A few of these I have found most interesting and it is one of these that I would like to pass on to you. My purpose is not to condemn or judge but that through the reading of the "Captain's Desk" series many might be blessed and be more anxious to serve and follow Jesus Christ.

ANY OTHER DAY

I'm sorry Sunday comes when it does. You see it is like this—we could attend church much more regularly if it came at some other time. But it is a day that comes after a hard week, and we are all tired out. Not only that, but it is the day following Saturday night, which is one time we feel we should enjoy ourselves, and often it is after midnight when we reach home. It is almost impossible to get up on Sunday morning. It is the very day we want to sleep late, and it makes it mighty hard to get the children off to Sunday school, especially when they have it so early. Then there are the dishes to clean and we always have some things we just have to wash out. It is the day on which we have the biggest dinner, and the church has fixed the hour of worship at the very time we must be preparing the meal.

Then too, think of John. He is cooped up in his office all week, and Sunday morning is the only time he has to tinker with the car and to mow the lawn.

It is not our fault that we are not able to get to church on Sunday mornings. We would like to go, and we know we should go, and need to go, but the real reason we cannot go is because it is the wrong day. If it were a more convenient day we would be glad to go.

mented the club for their foresight in providing such a splendid tourist attraction for this district.

R. J. Bishop Sr. also had high words of commendation for those who in the face of considerable opposition had secured the steam locomotive and had it placed in such an ideal spot. This, he said, was only accomplished by the initiative, foresight, and drive of the historical committee of the Rotary club.

Mr. Litt then called on our federal member, Mr. C. W. Hodgson who, due to having taken part in the opening ceremonies at the Bobcaygeon fair, was a little late in arriving. Mr. Hodgson stated his pleasure at being present and said that the passing of the steam engine would be regretted by some, but it was an indication of the end of an era and another indication of the march of progress that is taking place all over this great country.

At this time the chairman called on Mr. R. J. Curry who by the way, could possibly be termed as the man behind the gun in securing the steam locomotive. Mr. Curry read a letter from the Hon. L. M. Frost who expressed his regrets at not being able to be present owing to previous commitments. The speaker, in introducing Mr. A. R. Willson who was to make the presentation address, gave an outline of Mr. Willson's railroad career starting at the bottom of the ladder until he had attained his present high position in the CNR.

Mr. Willson, in presenting the engine to the Rotary club, took time to acquaint everyone with a brief history of this historic steam engine and after listening to the different rail lines on which this locomotive hauled passengers, express and freight, we feel that it well deserved the attractive resting place on which it is now situated.

The locomotive was then presented by the Rotary club to the county high school board.

Mrs. Richard Kirkwood, on behalf of the board, thanked the Rotary club for the gift of the historic steam engine.

Following the playing of O Canada, the parade reformed and marched to the community park.

Previous to the speaking the Colborne Trumpet and Baton Corps entertained the crowd with a most pleasing drill display.
